June's meeting

Nothing quite says "summer" like some tasty desserts – and there were lots to be had at the final meeting of the year. The club and many members supplied tons of desserts to sample – far more food than people. (But when was that ever a problem?)

There was some good news to share, too – Brandon Kidd had been awarded a scholarship to this year's Summer Safari (congratulations, Brandon!).

And the good news kept coming – the President's Trophy was awarded to Jon Akrey for his many effects he brought from the Kind of Magic store in Kitchener and performed for us during the year (congrats, Jon!!).

While we were all filling our faces, the magic started coming. Jon Akrey performed a great Linking Thumbs routine and followed it by wrapping a wire in flash paper and it burned into a form of a spectator's selected card!

Peter Mennie showed us a card routine using two "green cards" to eliminate blocks of cards in a deck, only to finally sandwich a spectator's selection. Paul French did a nice four Ace production, and followed that with an impromptu Out of This World routine.

Brandon Kidd shuffled two halves of a deck (one all cards face down; one with face up and face down cards) and made the two halves switch places! And Mark Hogan (after a couple ugly misfires) did a Steve Bargatze routine where a spectator stops dealing at a thought-of card and the rest of the deck are blank!

Next Meeting:

Wednesday, September 12 7:30PM

Topic: Names in a hat – just like FFFF!

Beal Secondary School
525 Dundas Street, London
T-253

A visit by Andy Parr (just there for the food, I'm sure!) was welcome as he showed some puzzles that were very... well ... puzzling! First was a set of magic wands where the number of black and red ones seemed to change; then a nice magic square with a selected number; and a selected puzzle piece being the only piece that completes a large puzzle of the CN Tower!

The night ended with Mike Fisher's premiere performance of "Corbin the Courier", complete with UPS attire and boxes to deliver. The effects were right in line with his persona – including a BankNite routine with letter to deliver, a watch wrapped in bubble wrap smashed against the wall to show his wrapping skills, and the same watch appearing inside the nested set of delivery boxes. Mike, you've done it again – a special treat on a night filled with treats!

TOPIC: Names in a hat: Just like FFFF

Ever wonder what it'd be like to attend Fechter's Finger Flicking Frolic (FFFF) - the most famous, invitation-only, close-up magic convention on the planet?

While we can't get you in, we can do one thing that they do at FFFF – put everyone's name in a hat, and if your name is drawn, you must perform something!

Have we got your attention now??

It's simple – bring something you'd like to show... anything at all ... to the meeting. Your name will go in that hat, and if it's drawn ... you're on!
